

Adjectives

TalentSprint

Licensed To Skill

Adjectives answer –

Types of Adjectives

- Common
- Proper
- Demonstrative

Common Adjectives

Common adjectives are like common nouns. They are descriptive words that are not specific to a particular person, place, thing or idea.

Example:

- Yesterday I ate some tasty fries.
- Some houses include several levels.

Proper Adjectives

Proper adjectives are like proper nouns. They are descriptive words that are specific. They are derived from proper nouns. A proper adjective is capitalized.

Example:

- Yesterday I ate some tasty French fries.
- An English sheepdog has a long, shaggy coat.

Demonstrative Adjectives

Demonstrative adjectives answer the question “which one.”

They point out a specific

- person
- place
- thing
- idea

Types of Demonstrative Adjectives

- this

I want to buy this cd.

- that

That book is mine.

- these

Did you iron these shirts?

- those

Those boxes are full of books.

Post Queries

ta
sp

Questions and Answers